RISTORI AT THE ACADEMY. - We have received he following letter from Mr. Grav, which will undoubtedly be of absorbing interest to our drama-loving readers:-

To the Editor of The Evening Telegraph :-New York, July 30.—Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in sending you the interligence that I have effected an engagement with stedame Adelaide Ristori for a series of one buildred and it wenty performances, to be given in the United states and Havana. More-over, that I have concluded an angements for nine appearances of this same great artist a, the Academy of Music, to be given in two weeks beginning on the 12th of November. The announcement of Madame Ristori's arrival in this country is creating considerable interest, and I have no coubt her concus will be aspercia ed among such an intelectual community as Philadelphians. I ast no that the intelligence of Macame R stori's visit to Philadelphia will be received with plea are by your leaders, J. GRAU. I remain, very respectfully,

This deservedly world-renowned artist is at last coming amongst us. Sue has for years en-tranced European audiences by the power and artistic finish of her acting, the melody and flexibility of her voice, her many womanly qualities, and the angelic attributes of her character. She seems to have been one of the very few vocal and dramatic stars that have emulated the virtues of Jenny Lind. Let us give ber a hearty welcome to the Quaker city. To-morrow we will publish a short sketch of her extraordinary professional career.

CHESNUT STREET TREATRE, -The second representation of the gorgeous spectacular extrava-ganza. The Second Beauty, took place last night at this establishment. The scenery is of that resplendent description that at once dazzles and delights us. The good old days of "Harle-quin," "Colombine," and "Clown," when the irresistible Grimaldi set our grand athers "on when the a roar." have passed into torgetfulness, and in their place have we these fairy spectacles and tablsaux vivants. The one at the Chesnut Street Theatre is among the best of this class, and is brought on the stage with an expenditure o time and money unparalleled in the dramatic annals of this country. Last night the repre sentation was a perfect success. Miss Josie Orton 'Sleeping Beauty," acquitted herself with that delectable grace and sweetness which have won her a prominent place in the favor of the people in the United States. Mr. Michael Woolf was also not ceable, no less from the energy of his acting, than from the visible improvement on the former night. His unequal success doubtless was owing to its being his first night before a Philadelphia audience, and the emoarrassment consequent on the first production of the piece. Several others were very successful in rendering their various roles. Mr. Henry Pearson, as the "King," and Mrs. Charles Henri (Mrs. McK. Rankin) as the "Prince," did them selves infinite credit, and were received with deserved applause. Next Monday will be produced, for the first time, Baccharat; or, Knaves of the Pack, in which a formidable array of dramatic talent will assist in its successful production.

WALNUT STREET THEATER. - The successful adaptation of Alexandre Dumas' great story, "The Three Guardsmen," has obtained, deservedly, a large and increasing patronage in our city, more especially so under the superintendence of the able and efficient manager of the Walnut Street Theatre. The acting of Junius Brutus Booth has been the subject of universal encomium, and being supported by such a galaxy of histrionic talent, he has rendered the Walnut Street Theatre the centre of dramatic

A PEEP FROM THE CLOUDS, -Few Philadelphians have enjoyed the pleasure of ascend ing several thousand feet above the level of their own broad and beautiful Delaware, and in that cool and clouded auditorium, of casting on the deturesque scene that slumbers below them, the "quiet of a loving eye," It marks an epoch in existence to so shift the kaleidoscope of circumstances, as to be able to view the sinuous river verging on either side into the misty abyss of the horizon, the clustering houses inter-spersed with the small, bright emeralds of the trees, and the thousands of people that toil and swear among the streets, and move about like so many water-flies on the smooth surface of a rivulet—a perfect map of a great city and its vicinity—a bird's-eye view. Major Hay is giving series of balloon ascensions from his Amphi theatre in Camden, which are being largely patronized, especially by the ladies, and will no doubt grow more and more popular as the perfect ease and safety of the ascent become known. beautiful symmetry of his mammoth bal loon, the expert knewledge of its proprietor, and low rate of charge which is necessary to enjoy this rare and thrilling experience, are elements which cannot fall to make the enterprise of Major Hay as great a success here as that of Professor Lowe is in the metropolis.

DELTA GROVE,-This place, which for many years past has been the retreat for Sunday schools, has become the resort of rowdies. thieves, and blacklegs-so much so that the residents in that locality intend, at the next session of the Burlington County Court, to pre sent the place as a nuisance. Last week a down town fire company visited it, and spent the day in dancing, drinking, and rioting. One woman was knocked down and robbed of a gold watch worth $30; two others had their pockets picked On Monday a steamer took up a crowd that deported themselves in such a shame tul manner that the hotel-keeper at Delanco was compelled to close his house, and about fifty of the excursionists were atraid to return on the boat. During the trip down several fights occurred, and one man was brutally beaten. Yesterday a steamer carried another disorderly crowd to the ground, and the citizens at Delanco were shocked by the presence and conduct of a number of drunken females.

DEATH OF A MERCHANT.- The public will learn with regret of the sudden decease of Isase J. Evans, of the firm of H. Huddy & Co. At a meeting of the Corn Exchange Association held this morning, Mr. Nathan Brooke, the Vice-President of that body, announced the fact, and a preamble and resolution were adopted expressive of their regret at his demise.

THE LATE EXCURSION OF THE "KENNE. BEC."—A number of statements having been published in the papers of our city, reflecting on the conduct of Captain Clark, of the steamer Kennebec, in regard to the Scott M. E. Church excursion, we cheerfully open our columns to the test mony of others who have made trips in his ves-el, both previous to and since that of the Scott Church. We have also had a conversation with Captain Clark, from which we are convinced that there was nothing the matter with the boat, but that the slow time made was owing entirely to the passengers all crowling on the upper-deck, and thus litting one wheel out of the water. We are also convinced that the captain, knowing the Kennebec, as he does, as a slow but sure vessel, never made any promise to take the party down in nine hours and return with them in seven.

WILMINGTON, July 31, 1856.—To Captain P R Clark of the steamer Kennebecs—We, the under-dersigned, members of Committees of associations that have chartered your steamer for excursion parties during the present season, desire to return cheere thanks for the many courteses afforded us by yourse ! and those under your command, and testily to the slaunceness and reliability of the steamer Kennebec, of the sea-going qualities of which we were made rericctly satisfied during our excursions to Cape May.

The accommodations afforded on the boat gave general satisfaction to all the excursionists whom we have the pleasure to represent. WILLIAM J. FEENEY, JAMES MCGLINCHEY, MARTIN BUZINE. SAMUEL G. TAZEWELL, THOMAS B. STRAHAN, WILLIAM JOHNSON, WILLIAM OMENSETTER, JOHN V. CHRISTY, MYERS HAYZES, JR.,

BALL MASQUE AT CAPE ISLAND .- An infinite fund of amusement is expected at the grand bat masque and sea-side carnival at Cape Island. Those romantic tritons and nymohs who requent the various four story "cottages by sea," from Old Point Comfort to Long Branch and Newport, seem by some "cantrag sleight," to be drawn irresistibly towards. Cape May this year, and the beauty and wealth of the whole country are there represented. concentration of these social attributes is certain to be effected upon the beautiful lawn of Congress Hall upon the evening of the 9th instant, one week from to-morrow. This gorgeous affair is under the superintendance of one hundred and fifty of the most prominent and influential gentlemen staying at the various hotels of Cape Island. Superb music will be discoursed by a combination of three immense bands. A great attendance is confidently expected. No expense will be spared to give the visitors of this huge festival all the proper opportunities for their comfort and enjoyment.

RIOT AND ASSAULT AND BATTERY .-Yesterday aftert oon, between 3 and 4 o'clock, Rody Martin, Hugh Ware, Samuel Hutchinson, and Matthew McClelland attacked two negroes at the corner of Ninth street and Columbia avewith brickbats and stones. Officer Matthews, of the Eighth District, who happened to be in the neighborhood, dressed in citizens clothes, attempted to make arrests, at the same time telling them he was an officer. The rioters then turned upon him also, and beat him very severely. Soon after, some four or five officers were sent to the scene of the disturbance, and succeeded in arresting the four men mentioned above, secreted among some barrels, and in the outbuildings of a molasses refinery in the neigh-borhood. They had a hearing before Alderman Fitch, who committed them in default of $2000 bail each to answer.

ANOTHER ARREST OF MILL ROBBERS. Patrick Tobin was arrested on Monday after-noon, charged with being accessory to the larceny of acticies from the Tacony Mills, in connection with Conner and Chandler, who got the copper rollers and delivered them to Tobin, who sold them and divided the profits with his two accomplices. When controlled with the evidence against him he also confessed, and was held in $2000 bail by Alderman Holmes to an swer. Tobm is a dealer in iron and metals, and has been engaged in that business for over seventeen years. He is reputed to be in independent circumstances. He has no stated place of business, buying and selling for cash. He resides in Biddle street, near Spring Garden Gas FIREMEN'S EXCURSION. - The Reliance Engine Company. No.$7, intend participating in a grand excursion to Brooklyn, L. I., and Albany, N. Y., on the 12th of September. They will be accompa nied by the National Cornet Band of Frankford. and expect to take sixty or seventy members, who, during their stay, will be the guests of Franklin Engine Company. No. 3, of that city.

RIOTOUS CONDUCT .- About half an hour after midnight this morning, two of our citizens passing or residing in the neighborhood of Fit teenth and Market streets, were assaulted by some rowdles. Several arrests were made of the parties, and two of them, Joseph Parker and James Timmins, were charged with assault and battery, and held in $1000 bail by Alderman Jones to answer. James W. Nickels, who had a revolver on his person at the time he was arrested, was held in $600 bail to answer the charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons, ARREST ON SUSPICION OF MURDER .- A colored man by the name of John Frankish was arrested yesterday near the Delaware Avenue Market, on suspicion of being concerned in the murder perpetrated in Woodbury, some days ago. He was taken before Alderman Delany, who deemed the evidence sufficient to commit him for a further hearing.

A MUSICAL FEAST,-Those who delight ! concord of sweet sounds" will be undoubtedly pleased to hear of the proximity of some o the most eminent musical artists, chief among whom is M'me Marie Frederici, who has thrilled by her impassioned and melodious notes many a European and American audience. Franz Himmer, the gitted and cultivated tenor, and Jean Louis, the celebrated baritone, will give a grano musical entertainment at the Surf House, Atlantic City, on Saturday evening, August 4, assisted by Theodore Hermann. To be followed by a grand hop, given by the Satterlee Bard. An entertainment so unique, and arranged with such good faste, has seldom offered itself to pub-lic petronage. Ye lovers of music and the

OBLITARY.

To day a gloom has been cast over the hearts of the many warm friends of Mr. Isaac J Evans (or the firm of H. Huddy & Co) by his sudden and untimely death. He was taken sick on vesterday morning with violent and alarming choleraic symptoms, and although the best medical assistance was procured, he died in great pain about noon. A consultation and post mortem examination resulted in the conclusion that his death was caused by a virulent attack of Asiatic cholera. The deceased was a young man of very considerable business ability, energetic and persevering in his career, and of unquestionab'e probity. In his social relations, moreover, he had endeared himself to those who knew him by the many estimable at ribu es or his character. He was a firm triend and a dutiful son. His relations can seek consolation in his many good qualities and his friends remember him with a grateful tear.

THE NEW ORLEANS RIOT.

A Detailed Account of the Outbreak Extent of the Outrage Upon Individuals-Death of Dr. Dostie-Chirty No. gross Killed-Great Number of Whites and Blacks Wounded-Important Directions from President Johnson-Twenty-five Members of the Convention Indicted- I'wo Policemen Die from their Wounds-All the Rioters Released by Military Authority.

Washington, July 31 .- A New Orleans corres pondent furnishes, under date of July 30, the following detailed and connected account of the outbreak in that city yesterday:-

I have already forwarded a number of dis connected despatches relative to to-day's fearful carnage, and now propose to give you a more connected account, I only write what I can substantiate on the best authority. The convention met at 12 o'clock, twenty-six members being present, Judge R. K. Howell, since missing, in the chair.

R. Kmg Butler, also missing, moved an adjournment of an hour, during which time the Sergeant-at-Arms was directed to compel the attendance of absentees. The Hall was densely packed with freedmen and whites, the forming naving armed themselves extensively since their Friday's demonstrations. Just after the adjournment a procession containing about a hundred treedmen, carrying a United States flag, and marching the streets with martial music, arrived at the Institute, having had a slight disturbance on Canal street.

At this juncture the merchants all over the city, fearing the coming riot, closed their stores. When the procession entered the building, a squad of police followed and attempted to make airests. A scene of the wildest contusion followed; pistols were fired, clubs and canes were used, and brickbats flew in every direction. The policemen claim that they were merely attempting to arrest the Canal street rioters, above mentioned, but certain it is that they mounted the platform, where a small body of the mem bers yet remained, and one of them presented a pistol upon their using offensive language.

The policemen were finally driven out of the building, leaving inside Governor Hahn, Judge Howell. Mr. De Costie, and other gentlemen, with Clark, attached to the State Government besides about fifty freedmen. Fortunately Governor Wells had just left the building fo the purpose of consulting with General Baird about calling out troops, General Sheridan being out of town. The institution used now as the State Capitol is located in Dryades street, between Canal and Common, and when the policemen were driven out they were met by a large body of freedmen, who caused them to fall back to Canal street. Having a turniture cart, I used it as an observatory on Canal street, looking towards Common through Dryades street. The policemen rallied and drove the treedmen and their triends back to Common, and in turn were driven back to Canal street, leaving Dryades street perfectly clear of any vestige of humanity except the bodies of three dead freedmen.

Up to this time one police officer had been mortally wounded, one severely, others were slightly hurt with clubs and pistol shots. Police reinforcements soon appeared in Caual street and the crowd of rioters accompanying the police approached the Institute and commer throwing stones through the windows and firing pistols at any one they could see inside the building. At the same time a detachment of police attacked the crowd of freedmen on Common street, and after sharp firing and wounding several blacks, they drove them away. This gave the police and the mob which accompanied them full control of Dryades street.

A fire engine was brought out and placed in front of the Institute, for what purpose I do not know. Several attempts were made by the police to enter the building; but they were repulsed. The ammunition of the men in the Institute seemed to give out about this time, as-ticy did not fre any more. They stiempted to escape through the rear of the Institute inte-Baronne street; but were met and either arrested or shot down. They'also tried to escape through an alley which runs from Dryades to Baronne, on the Canal street side. I do not know that any freedmen succeeded in getting away from the building alive, although I saw several at a distance from it being marched to Police quarters. I think that every one who tried to nought in the ailey above mentioned, and after they fell I saw crowds of ruffians bearing them as they were dving.

The policemen, whatever their orders were, behaved well towards the white prisoners, comparatively speaking. A. M. Fish was the first member of the Convention captured, and I am happy to say that although the police could not prevent the crowd from abusing him badly, they did keep him from being lynched. A man mounted a lamp-post on Canal street as Fish was being carried by under guard, and got a rope ready to bang him, but the guard drove the crowd away with their pistols. The next member arrested was Captain Hayes, a Texan scout for our army during the war. The crowd had been taught a lesson and did not interfere with him, although they grambled deeply as he passed through, calling them Rebels, traitors,

and other pet names
Governor Hahn succeeded in getting into the hands of the police unburt from out of the building where he had been, not as a member, but as one of the most prominent equal rights men in the State. While he was under guard, however, some coward shot him through the back of the head, inflicting a dangerous wound, and he was also stabbed. He was then placed in a back and carried to police beadquarters, where I saw him sent into continement. He was very pale, and the blood trickled down his face from a wound which seemed to have reached his left temple.

Mr. Dostie, who had the reputation of being the most violent negro-sudrage man in the South, and who certainly was the most violent speaker on Friday last, was killed while attemoting to get away. Sam told that a policeman shot him in the back, and that after he fell a crowdjumped on him and cut him horribly

The riot commenced at 12:15 and ended at 3:36 o'clock. At 245 o'clock the military, under General Baird, appeared on Canai street, and snally took possession of the whole civ. Before night the not was confined to Dryades, Baronne, Common, Carondelet, and Canal streets, and the buildings and yards all around the Inctitute. I saw freedmen shot dead on all of the above streets except Canal, who could have been arrested uninjured. How many men have been killed, wounded, or even arrested, it is imposs ble to say, but my estimate is one handred freedmen and twenty five whites killed and wounded, and one hundred altogether arrested. The substant al men of the city deplore the occurrence, but all are very violent in their expressions, some glorying in the murder of Do-tie,

Important Order from President John-New ORLEANS, July 31.—The following despatch has just been received, and will be

and others in the murder of the freedmen

N. Y. Times.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—To Andrew S. Herron, Attorney-General of Louisiana:—You will call on General Sheridan, or whoever may be in command, for sufficient force to su-tain the civil authorities in suppressing all illegal or untawful assemblies who usure or assume to exercise any power or authority without first having obtained the consent of the people of the State.

If there is to be a Convention, let it be composed of delegates chosen from the people of the whole State. The people must first be consulted in changing the organized laws of the Usurpation will not be tolerated. The law and the Constitution must be sustained, and thereby peace and order.
